Honorable Mike Mansfield
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Mansfield:

Thank you for your letter of 4 April concerning a communication which you received from [redacted]

STAT

[redacted] was interviewed recently by one of our field representatives who has reported to us on his general qualifications and employment interests. We have found that we do not have an opening commensurate with [redacted] background and career objectives and a copy of our letter advising him of this result is enclosed.

STAT

Regarding [redacted] request about other Government agencies to which he might apply, we have suggested to him that he submit applications to the Department of State, United States Information Agency, and the International Cooperation Administration.

Your interest in bringing [redacted] letter to my attention is appreciated.

STAT

Sincerely,

STAT

Senator Mansfield has brought to our attention your letter of 26 March to him regarding your interest in Government employment which will afford you an opportunity to continue your study of the Soviet Union.

STAT

[redacted] has briefed us on his interview with you and provided a description of your general qualifications for consideration in light of our present openings. We regret to advise you that our staffing situation is substantially as he discussed it with you and it is unlikely that we will have a vacancy in the foreseeable future which would take advantage of your interest in employment with us.

Regarding your request for suggestions about other agencies to which you might apply, may we suggest that you explore the opportunities which might be available to you in the Department of State, United States Information Agency, and the International Cooperation Administration. You may write to these agencies using the address Washington 25, D. C.

Your interest in service with our organization was appreciated.
